HAPLAN COLUMN FOR WING TO SEE A DESTRUCTION OF THE BOLD OF THE BOL

All of the leaves above set forth were spropriately referred.

[We comined in yes/erday's report to note the passage of a till fir the benefit of Harry Sanckey, clerk of the Louisville chancery court. The same was reported by Mr. Swigert, from the Finance Committee.]

Mr. LUCKNER offered the following resulting which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the Speaker appoint a special committee of five members, whose duty it shall be to ascertain the present condition of the Kentucky River Navigation Company; the amount of its capit distorted that has been subscribed for; whelling the same was reported by Mr. Swigert, from the Finance Committee.] ducted Mr. Develin is an old hand in the business, and an able writer. The Journal Company have a very nice building nearly completed for their printing establishment. They are doing a good business—at least they tell me so—and from appearances I should judge that to be a fact.

Weather clear and moderating this afternoon.
